ABOUT THE KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Linda H. Foster became Vice President for Professional Practice at the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC) and affiliates in July 2009 after previously holding a tenure track position as a counselor educator. She is a National Certified Counselor (NCC), National Certified School Counselor (NCSC), Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC) and Supervising Counselor (SC).

After completing her master’s degree at the University of Alabama at Birmingham in 1997, she served as a school counselor for over 10 years. During that time, Dr. Foster completed an Education Specialist degree in 1999 and her Ph.D. in Counseling Education at Mississippi State University in May 2003. Dr. Foster’s work has been published in national journals and books, and she has given presentations across the nation and around the world promoting professional standards and professional identity for counselors.
